This is an opportunity for K-12 educators to get rooted in our collective wisdom around the purpose and practice of education. Using liberatory thinking, this session is designed to help educators joyfully prepare for the new school year.

Through personal testimony, story telling, and artifact building, we will bridge education theory around supporting our most marginalized students with concrete practices. With guidance from incredible teachers, participants will collaborate to identify ways to bring vision to life.

By the end of the session educators will feel grounded, inspired, and ready to come back to school with pedagogical resources that lay the foundation for an incredible year.

EXPERIENTIAL OUTCOMES

BE IN RELATIONSHIP Experience a humanizing and joyful learning environment that maximizes examples of culturally relevant pedagogy

DREAM OUTSIDE OF THE STATUS QUO Use legacy pedagogies that support all adults and students, to imagine learning experiences that are identity affirming, cultivate joy, and set the stage for academic excellence.

THINK STRATEGICALLY Consider roadblocks to making our dreams a reality and develop strategies to address them.

GET CONCRETE Build tangible artifacts to set, reinforce, and sustain a learning culture rooted in radical dreams.
